Reserve Device

Devices may be reserved to ensure availability. If you open a device but do not lock or reserve it, another user may lock or reserve the device and your session will be terminated.

You will be blocked from using the device for the reserved time period of the other user. Users should reserve a device to guarantee its availability.

- Use the search device filter or device or model select list box , select one or more devices and reserve it.
- Device are represented with device name and model name, required device are dragged to selected device column and on clicking reserve button.
- A pop up appears on screen, fill the input parameters reservation Name, select the accessible Users and reserveAt for reserving device now or later.
- For reserving device later user need to give input parameters i.e. reserveAt, releaseAt (startTime and endTime) to reserve device or for reserving device now will take current time as reserve time and release time should be provided.