TESTBED VARIABLES

Variables are the used to store global variable with in testbed.

Variables will only have name and their value will be configured while creating or editing a testbed

Examples: server url, port number etc.

Common values throughout the testbeds can be added using this option.

Adding a Variable just requires its name

Variables can be reused in many testbeds